Khabbar Follies

In this section, Khabbar looks into the Konkani community and anything and everything that is Konkani from a Konkani point of view. The names will never be published but geographic location will be identified in general terms.

There is no doubt in my mind that Khabbar is a part & parcel of life of Konkanis in North America. In fact, Khabbar has developed a special relation with most of the Konkani families and here are some examples of those close encounters of a different kind.....

I think with limited knowledge of Konkani, our kids manage pretty good. Case in point, this family was busy preparing for their daughter's wedding. The last name of a person on the invitee list was missing and the bride (second generation American Konkani) wrote the last name as "Koenke" meaning somebody in Konkani! As the invitee list was getting finalized and all the names were edited for accuracy, a contact was made to get the correct last name of that invitee. To everyone's surprise, that person's last name was KOENKE! Now, what are the chances of that happening!?!

This family from CA after retiring in early 2009, decided on spending few months a year in India and the rest here in the US. This family being a true patron of Khabbar, I sent a copy of Khabbar to this family's address in India while they were there. Here came the reply from the family, "Hi Vasanth, It was a pleasant surprise to receive Khabbar at our Mysore address. As always reading Khabbar was fun. Now that is really news from "Kular" for us. It really shows how much you care about your loyal followers. Thanks."

EDITORIAL

Dear Konkani family,

I hope all is well with you and your family.

This issue of Khabbar has been mailed to ALL families that have paid dues at least once since 2007. In other words, families who have not paid since 2006 will not be receiving this issue. The numbers on the mailing label clearly indicate the year/s the dues for Khabbar has been received since 2007 and if there is any error let me know.

Even in these tough economic times, the Advisory Committee of Khabbar has decided that the annual dues will remain the same at $15.00 a year and for that you get:

- Four issues of the Khabbar,
- Annual Mailing List and
- Discounted advertisement rates.

This issue has not been mailed to families that have specifically indicated that they will access eKhabbar. The on-line version of Khabbar, eKhabbar, will be on the web a quarter after mailing the hard copies.

The 2010 Khabbar Mailing List will be mailed only to families that have paid their subscriptions for 2009. The Khabbar Mailing List is a prized possession of our community and help me to keep it up-to-date. Send names and addresses of Konkani families that are not in the list to P. O. Box 222, Lake Jackson, TX 77566-0222, or email khabbar@hotmail.com and rest be assured that I'll "Khabbarize" them!

Khabbar will publish all the developments and progress made by NAKA on an on-going basis. Send your constructive suggestions to any of the Directors of the NAKA Board. The much anticipated Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF) has been incorporated. Now we have an avenue to help our community at large. Please, extend all the help to KCF.

The response to the Konkani Cruise 2010 was overwhelming. Majority felt that we as a community should maintain our biennial meetings and hence the Konkani Cruise in 2010. Please, extend all your support to this venture.

The unofficial Khabbar correspondents in your area who send in the hoon Khabbars on a regular basis are doing an outstanding job. Remember, if it did not appear in Khabbar, then it did not happen in North America! If your area is not represented wholly, let me know and I'll recruit more volunteers. You can send the news items via email (khabbar@hotmail.com).

On the Quiz front, Khabbar has still remained as a champ. We had only six correct responses to the last quarter's quiz!. Let us see how you will do with this quarter's quiz!?!

The progress of the ambitious project, Konkani Kendra, the Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan is good. Thanks to Basti Ganapathi Shenoy who has devised a method wherein families wanting to help Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan can do so with relative ease! Call him at (702)-341-6706 or email: bshenoy@cox.net if interested to extend your help for this worthy cause. Indeed, the Kendra has become a center of attraction and I urge all North American Konkans to visit the Kendra to see what way they can benefit from this. Also, see in what way we can help our brethren who are doing an outstanding job in preserving our culture.

Sri Basti Vaman Shenoy, who dedicated his life to Konkani cause will turn 75 in 2010 and in his honor, the Board of Trustees of Konkani Language & Cultural Foundation has decided to celebrate the Amritotsav (Platinum Jubilee) on Jan 17, 2010. On behalf of North American Konkans, I applaud Sri Shenoy for his service to our community. Hope, you will be able to attend the function.

Khabbar will always publish appeals for charity free of charge but cannot collect money on behalf of any charity. Families are encouraged to send the money directly to the concerned charities. It is amazing to see so many appeals come to Khabbar on a regular basis. Khabbar firmly believes in helping our people whether it is in India or here. Join Khabbar Kares Email List if interested in helping the needy.

Happy Holidays & Happy New Year to you all.

Devu Boren Karo.

Recently, I came across this Webpage titled, "MY MANGALORE" and was completely bowled over! It contains information & brief biographical sketches of several nationally & internationally acclaimed personages of Mangalorean origin; about places in and around Mangalore and most astoundingly, a gallery of fabulous photographs of Mangalore and its surroundings dating back to the mid & late 19th Century which one never gets to see anywhere.

I felt that I would be doing a great disservice to all of you if I were not to share this treasure-trove of goodies with you because in view of your connections with Mangalore, you will surely enjoy the contents and would not like to miss them.

Please do forward this Mail to as many of your relatives, acquaintances and friends of Mangalorean origin as possible as well to all those whom you think might have an interest in Mangalore and would enjoy to see how Mangalore looked in days of yore.

Please be advised that the Web page is a very long one and will take a long time to peruse. So, it would be prudent to open the page when you have ample time to pore over and savour the contents. In case you are unable to finish seeing the entire page in one sitting, or would like to visit it again (?and again), please Bookmark the site address in your Web Browser. To see the photographs in greater detail, please use the zoom feature of your Browser to enlarge the images.

Dear Friends,
Folks Magazine has been just updated. I am not sure if many of you know of its launch. We are now completing our first month with this issue.

Our average hits per day, on average, until today, is around 2,800. We want to make that 5,000 and thus this mail unto. Once we hit that 5k mark we will be at par with the premier magazines in the country. Being an apolitical magazine we are just trying, and hard, to make a point and for that we need your support. Read and if you relish, which we think - you will, do recommend us to your friends.

Counting on your continued support.
With kind regards and best wishes
Fraternally,

Dear Editor,

I am sending this article for submission to Khabbar Magazine for your upcoming issue. This article is written by my sister-in-law, Mrs. Vijaya Nadkarni, who visited this residential school for tribal mentally challenged children near Nasik, Mumbai. The school is being built by Mrs. Shitala Pandit, a Konkani women who has devoted her life to doing this wonderful service. I think it would make a wonderful addition to the upcoming issue. The NIH Director's Pioneer Award Program is a unique aspect of the NIH Roadmap for Medical Research, a high-risk research initiative of Research Teams of the Future. Pioneer Awards are designed to support individual scientists of exceptional creativity who propose pioneering – and possibly transforming approaches – to major challenges in biomedical and behavioral research. The term “pioneering” is used to describe highly innovative approaches that have the potential to produce an unusually high impact on a broad area of biomedical or behavioral research, and the term “award” is used to mean a grant for conducting research, rather than a reward for past achievements. To be considered pioneering, the proposed research must reflect ideas substantially different from those already being pursued in the investigator's laboratory or elsewhere. Biomedical and behavioral research is defined broadly in this announcement as encompassing scientific investigations in the biological, behavioral, clinical, social, physical, chemical, computational, engineering, and mathematical sciences.

Awardees are required to commit the major portion (at least 51%) of their research effort to activities supported by the Pioneer Award. Investigators at all career levels are eligible, and those at early to middle stages of their careers and women and members of groups underrepresented in biomedical or behavioral research are especially encouraged to apply.

One of the 2009 Pioneer Award Recipients is Krishna V. Shenoy, Ph.D., Stanford University.

Krishna V. Shenoy, Ph.D., is an associate professor of electrical engineering and bioengineering at Stanford University. He received a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1995. Shenoy combines theoretical, computational, behavioral, and electrophysiological techniques to determine how neural circuits generate arm movements and uses this knowledge to design neurally controlled prosthetic systems for profoundly paralyzed patients. He is using his Pioneer Award to create the technology needed to record—and perturb—neural activity and record muscle and body movements in freely moving nonhuman primates. He will use a fully wireless system to study how the brain orchestrates a broad range of movements, which could lead to new ways to treat paralysis in people.

NANDITA BIJUR recently had an article published in the online edition of The Toronto Star. The article discusses the efforts of various cultural organizations in preserving culture, including the Konkani Association of Ontario. Nandita is currently in Grade

KONKANI HAPPENINGS

KASC Summer Picnic 2009

The KASC picnic for Summer '09 was organized at the William Mason Park in Irvine on the 25th of July. This year's event was scheduled for the late afternoon/early evening time frame. The location of the gazebo where the KASC members met was situated right next to the lake. The warm So-Cal sunshine, clear blue skies and the cool breeze made it another beautiful, weather-perfect day in So-Cal. Kudos to Vivek Pai for choosing the great location.

The afternoon started with social hour and snacks. A yummy spread of kachori, samosas, bhel, cucumber sandwiches, dahi wada, jalebis, chips and cookies definitely got everyone licking their fingers. The Bhel was the biggest hit of the evening, prepared and served by our in-house bhel-expert Ashish Pradhan.

Once the tummies were filled up, everyone gathered along the lake front. After the introduction of the new members, Sabitha and Prasan Pai organized interactive fun games. The first game was an ice-breaker where all the attendees were divided into groups and were given 2 questions. Everyone had a good laugh hearing the hilarious stories for "Fresh-off-the-boat" experience and "What I would do if I won a million dollars and had to give it away". Raghu Pai and Vidya Kudva were the winners. There also were several fun children's games which had the kids gleefully engaged.

Dr. Ramadas Kamath made an announcement on the Konkani Cruise. The evening concluded with servings of sweet, juicy watermelon wedges. The event was attended by about 90 members. The committee would like to thank all who attended and enthusiastically participated! See pictures at <http://kascevents2009.shutterfly.com>

By: Jyothi Pradhan, La Palma, CA

About 130 members of AMKA (American Midwest Konkani Association) attended the annual picnic on August 8th at the Phillips Park in Aurora, Illinois. After a sumptuous meal, kids enjoyed the play areas available at the park in addition to the train ride and zoo. While men played volleyball in the hot sun, women stayed in the cool shelter to play pictionary and charades.

Drs. Narayan and Nirmala Nayak of KAOCA organized a free medical symposium on September 12, 2009 in Redwood City, CA. Konkani physicians and KAOCA members participated in discussions about health issues.

The Konkani Association of Ontario (KAO) held Dandiya Raas Garba on Saturday, September 19th 2009 at Northwood Community Centre in Toronto, Ont.

Gov. Paterson speaks to community on healthcare and budget issues

As appeared in Dec 5-11 issue of South Asian Times

NY Governor David Paterson addressed members of the Indian American community at an intimate event organized in his honor Wednesday at Akbar Restaurant, Garden City, by Dr J. Ganesh Bhat, Co-President of Atlantic Dialysis Management Services, and Ravishankar Bhooplapur, President of Xavier University School of Medicine (Aruba).

In his well reasoned out speech, Paterson conceded that the state of New York is facing budgetary challenges, though not as bad as California, Arizona and some other states. Giving the example of "choosing between buying toys for the children and paying the rent", the Governor said there are hard but wise choices which he has been pushing the legislature to make. "The legislature is making bad choices by pushing problems to the future", he said.

He also underlined the far-reaching steps and schemes he has initiated to take healthcare cover to more and more people—including changing the eligibility limit of Child Health Plus so all children get insurance, and allowing those in the 19-29 age group to go on their parents' insurance. In his address "Health Care and the Future", Dr Bhat highlighted some of the problems doctors face. While Bhooplapur welcomed the governor, Dr Nirmal Matoo, Co-President of Atlantic Dialysis, introduced the governor.

Closing comments were made by Richard J. Harris, Chairman & CEO of Comprehensive Healthcare Management Solutions.

Many prominent Indian Americans were in attendance that included Dr J. Ganesh Bhat and his daughter, Dr Premila Bhat, a nephrologist, to applaud the first African American governor of New York who is at pains to explain to the populace all that he is doing to solve some of the intractable problems of the large state

Shri Basti Vaman Shenoy Amritotsav (Platinum Jubilee) Celebrations

Message from Shri P. Dayanand Pai, Chairman, Vishwa Konkani Kendra, Shakti Nagar, Managalore

Vishwa Konkani Sardar and Vishwa Saraswat Sardar Shri Basti Vaman Shenoy has completed 75 years. All through the years since his boyhood, he has dedicated his life to social, literary, art and cultural activities and it is needless to say that he has contributed significantly in these arenas.

During his younger days he was greatly inspired by the teachings of Swami Vivekananda and also the Gandhian philosophy. Then the writings of Pandit Jawaharalal Nehru the First Prime Minister of India influenced his thoughts greatly and helped him develop a VISION to serve the nation in particular and the humanity in general through inter-community dialogues and Sama and Samanvaya Bhava basing on equality and universal outlook. As a Bank Manager, he had the unique privilege of being close to two giant bankers who headed Syndicate Bank as Chairmen, Late Shri T.A. Pai and Late Shri K.K. Pai, whom he holds in high esteem even today as his mentors and at the same time, friends, philosophers and guides.

Shri Basti Vaman Shenoy got the rarest of opportunities to organize two World Conventions in Mangalore.

- He was the Chief convener of the historical First World Konkani Convention (Vishwa Konkani Sammelan) in 1995 &
- First Vishwa Saraswat Convention held in 1999.

While organising these two historical conventions he had travelled extensively and visited many places from Delhi to Kochi and Bhuj (Gujarat) to Kokata (West Bengal) and came in contact with a large number of people from all walks of life with a missionary zeal. As a result of these visits, he succeeded in knitting together 23 Konkani communities spread over 4 states of India speaking different dialects and from Hindu, Christian and Muslim (Navayat) religious beliefs.

The two World Conventions cited above have brought him closer to all Konkani speaking communities living throughout the length and breadth of India, in Gulf countries, U.S.A and U.K and the other parts of the World. Later he extensively developed these worldwide contacts that helped him to realise his VISION to build World Konkani Centre (Vishwa Konkani Kendra) at Mangalore on a three acre land. He is confident that it will become sooner or later a centre of attraction like Kashi (Benaras) to Hindus, Rome to Christians and Mecca to Muslims.

Shri Basti Vaman Shenoy has ceaselessly worked with writers and scholars in Kannada, Tulu, Konkani and other languages. He had organized cultural festivals in New Delhi, Baroda, and Mumbai to Kochi.

As President of Konkani Bhasha Mandal, he had worked hard for getting the Karnataka Konkani Sahitya Academy at Mangalore. It is not an exaggeration if it is stated that because of his tireless efforts, in the year 1994 the then Hon. Chief Minister of Karnataka Shri M. Veerappa Moily announced the setting up of Karnataka Konkani Sahitya Academy and he has served as the President of Karnataka Konkani Sahitya Academy for two successive terms when he worked to further the cause of Konkani. Government of Karnataka has made Konkani a subject of learning to teach in schools in Karnataka again on account of his endeavours since 1994.

Taking all this into consideration, Konkani Language & Cultural Foundation (Vishwa Konkani Kendra) has taken a decision to celebrate the Amrithotsav of Vishwa Konkani Sardar Shri Basti Vaman Shenoy in a befitting manner and elsewhere in this Bulletin full details of the programme are given.

I invite all the Members and Well wishers to join me in the felicitation programme to wish him health and happiness and longevity in service of Konkani Language and also the Society and the Nation at large.

Rare Konkani film gains Toronto festival spotlight (Reuters)

(Reporting by Euan Rocha; Editing by Bob Tourtellotte) & forwarded by ajayullal@yahoo.com and viveku@yahoo.com

TORONTO (Reuters) - The Toronto International Film Festival has catapulted several well-known Bollywood movies to global prominence in recent years, but 2009's event has showcased one Indian movie that had audiences buzzing for its use of a rare language, Konkani.

"Paltadacho Munis," or "The Man Beyond the Bridge" is the first ever film using Konkani -- a language only spoken in the tiny state of Goa in Western India and a few surrounding areas -- to be selected among the some 300 movies playing here.

Only a handful of movies have ever been shot in Konkani, mostly due to the small market. Recent estimates put the total number of Konkani speakers in India at roughly 2.5 million, a mere 0.2 percent of the country's 1.2 billion people.

Still, the film about one man's struggle to accept and love a mentally ill woman, has generated strong interest among a small group of the language's speakers who are excited by the rare opportunity of watching a Konkani film.

Director Laxmikant Shetgaonkar hopes his movie will appeal to a wider audience and that the festival's backing can give it the publicity it needs to play in theaters around the world.

Last year, Anees Bazmee's 'Singh is Kinng,' was showcased at Toronto and was one of Bollywood's biggest hits, and the festival also served as a platform for Karan Johar's romantic drama 'Kabhi Alvida Naa Kehna' and Kabir Khan's first feature film 'Kabul Express,' which were both released in 2006.

"The Man Beyond the Bridge" follows the life of Vinayak a lonely forest guard, who one night comes across a filthy, unkempt and ill woman outside his house. Vinayak initially attempts to drive her away, but she keeps returning and a relationship slowly develops between the two.

But Vinayak is ridiculed and ostracized by local villagers, who cast out anyone with a mental illness and believe Vinayak's relationship with the woman is morally incorrect.

Shetgaonkar hopes the movie, set in the hinterlands of Goa, will cause audiences to question attitudes toward the mentally ill.

"The idea is to raise an issue, try to reflect different perspectives and make people think," he said.

Shetgaonkar also hopes the recognition gained by the film will encourage Indian filmmakers to produce works in other regional languages that do not have a long cinematic history.

"Konkani movies have a very small market ... But, since this movie is being screened here in Toronto, it shows that it is all about making a good film, irrespective of which language you make it in."

"The Man Beyond the Bridge" is the first feature film directed by Shetgaonkar, who has previously won critical acclaim for his documentary film "A Seaside Story," and the film was produced by the National Film Development Corp of India.

A visit - Dream Project of Late Smt. Rukmabai Tallur

By: - Mrs. Vijaya Nadkarni; submitted by Nandini Bijoor, nandinibijoor@yahoo.com

"A Saint of New India" Smt. Rukmabai Tallur on her 100th birthday had a vision - providing 'Food, Shelter & Education' to the poor handicapped adivasi tribal children. On this joyous occasion, she kept aside her gifts received for fulfilling her Dream Project, building a Residential School for the mentally challenged & the hearing impaired at Igatpuri 100 km from Mumbai towards Nasik. She called her niece Smt. Shitala Pandit & told her "take this money & build a school for these children at Igatpuri". Shitalapachi realized that this "dream" would require a lot more funds. To this Rukmakka replied, "Don't worry, you walk 10 steps & God will help you walk a further 20 steps".

Can you imagine that at the age of '100' Rukmakka could dream of such a big project. A true Karma yogi, who devoted all her life to the service of humanity, knew that you must dream big for the benefit of humanity.

This inspiration led Shitalapachi to take the initiative. Our visit on 12th July 2009 was to attend the Gana Homa, Vaastu Pooja & Navgraha Homa at the newly constructed School.

Built in beautiful & pictorial surroundings, near the Vipasna Kendra at Igatpuri, is the residential School. It provides accommodation & educational facilities for 103 children, 50 hearing impaired & 53 mentally challenged. The children are brought from remote villages of Nasik District. They come from poor & illiterate Adivasi homes, where a daily meal is difficult. How can the parents even think of giving them other facilities to overcome their handicap & become self-independent, leave alone to get some formal education?

This school has been built on half an acre of land. On the ground floor are 7 Classrooms, 2 Dormitories, a Kitchen, Dining hall, Toilet blocks and open space in the middle, where children can play indoor games & conduct other activities. These schools are functioning very well in temporary accommodation, which is now in dilapidated condition. The schools are recognized and have got an 'A' Grade from the Social Welfare Dept. but without any aid from the Government. The maintenance of the building, expenses of food, clothing, will be looked after by the Punyatma Prabhakar Sharma Seva Mandal till they get aid from the Govt.

To the clapping of hands, the children were welcomed into the building, which was to be their new home now. The dedicated staff assisted the children inside. They were led to the activity hall, where they showed the skills they were learning. Some of them sang some nursery rhymes. Others enjoyed drawing on the new soft board which one of the Donors, Mrs Kusum Karpe, had thoughtfully brought for them. The innocence on the faces of these 'special needy children' brought a tear to the eyes of the visitors.

The Pooja was conducted in the main hall, where beautiful marble moortis of Saraswati, Shiva, Hanuman & Swami Samarth were decorated with flowers. The main deity a marble moorti of Shree Ganesh seemed to be smiling benevolently on the work accomplished. After partaking the Prasad & enjoying the tasty lunch, came the most important function. The Principal of the mentally challenged children's school Shri Naval Sonar & his wife Smt Kalpana Sonar who are heads the hearing impaired children's school were honored. They are doing a laudable job without any salary. They stay at the school and are paid a nominal honorarium since 2 years from PPSSM. Shri Valu Sopnar fondly called as 'Baba' (from whom they have bought the plot), were also honored at the hands of Smt. Shanta Madiman, sister of Rukmakka. Thanks & honors were also given to Shri Arun Gokarn, who has offered his services for wholly managing the construction, together with his team of dedicated workers. They have done the work on no profit basis & at times below cost by extending credit. Shri Bharat Shah a renowned architect also gave his valuable service and various articles useful for the school. The function ended with 'Hip Hip Hurray' to Shitalapachi for her unstinted and selfless endeavor.

But this 'Dream Project' is far from complete. The first floor of the building requires an amount of around Rs. 10 lakhs for completion. After that the classes will be shifted to the first floor & the lower ground floor will house 'Vocational Workshops'. Special provision such as sound proof rooms and sound equipments need to be installed for the hearing impaired children.

We were dumbfounded / dumbstruck to see the humanitarian work done by the trust. So now it is our turn to help them in their mission. "Time is Money" but we may all not have time to devote to these children. But can we not do our bit for the Society by donating our mite? We can be assured that every rupee donated will be put to very good use. We spend so much on occasions like birthdays, marriages & other celebrations. We should decide that on every birthday and any other celebration we should donate for this noble cause.

Whenever you pass by Igatpuri, remember to take a left turn at 'Mahindra & Mahindra' plant & then wind your way past the 'Vipasna Kendra'. There you will see Smt. Rukmakka's 'DREAM PROJECT' taking shape which will make you feel happy and proud to be a KONKANI.

Report from Konkani Youth Convention - 2009

Konkani Youth Gather in the Nation's Capital

In August 2009, over 120 Konkani Youth from 21 states and provinces descended upon Washington, DC to network with fellow Konkani, re-connect with old friends and family, and forge a path for the future of the Konkani community in North America. Over the course of three days, the youth participated in professional networking, educational seminars, and activities to strengthen bonds within the Konkani youth. The participants had this to say --

“The Konkani Youth Convention in DC was an amazing experience for all those who were involved [sic], I feel that the friendships that were formed in this short span of time will stay with many people for years to come.”

“It was a memorable weekend that I hope my children one day will be able to engage in as well!”

Sustaining Our Community

On the last day of the Konkani Youth Convention, several Konkani youth announced the creation of the North American Konkani Youth Association (NAKYA), an umbrella organization that will build, strengthen and unify the North American Konkani youth Diaspora. NAKYA was formed to instill shared Konkani values and culture while recognizing the unique experiences of Konkani youth in North America. The organization will foster and cultivate the Konkani community by educating Konkani youth about our ancestral past while creating a community consciousness that support professional and social development. There are currently ten active Board Members on NAKYA, and they are working to get more individuals on the Board of Directors and involved in a variety of committees that will focus on everything from language, food, and spirituality to highlighting individual Konkani youth in the network. Many of the participants at the Convention showed excitement about the creation and formalization of NAKYA and plan on getting involved in the organization immediately. One participant said, “I thought the final seminar really summarized well what NAKYA aims to do to unite Konkani Youths. All the Youth Co-coordinators are amazing people and I appreciated their passion and enthusiasm. I have high hopes for the youth activities in the future!” To find out more about NAKYA, keep tabs on their upcoming website www.nakya.org

Konkani Youth Give Back to the Community

After receiving feedback from previous conventions, the DC Konkani Youth convention planners hosted a seminar on the importance of volunteerism and giving back to the community. This seminar focused on three Konkani youth, despite having busy schedules, who found the time to make a difference in the lives of the underserved. Manu Bhat started off the seminar by sharing his story about donating his moonji money, at the urging of his parents, to the Sankara Eye Foundation. Through the support of his parents, he started visiting the Sanakra Eye clinics and saw first-hand the impact that free and subsidized eye care can have on millions of people. He now goes to India regularly to volunteer at the Sankara Eye Foundation and raises awareness of the organization in the United States. Seema Kamath shared her experience volunteering at the Bharath Sevashram in Bantwal Taluk. Using her public health experience, she conducted workshops on good oral health and provided oral health assessments and dental health screenings. She shared the stories of the people she met, and how she spoke Konkani to communicate with the people in the Ashram. Finally, the seminar was wrapped up by Sunchenth Bhat who outlined details for the Konkani Youth volunteer trip to India, and how the youth can get involved in these volunteering opportunities. The participants were moved by the experiences and shared their interest to get involved. One participant said, "I liked how honest and forthcoming the presenters were with their experiences, and I love the idea of going to India and doing something together."

Appeal: Join the KHABBAR KARES Email List

I get numerous appeals, mostly from India for a cause that is worthy to them. It could be for a scholarship fund; it could be to help a temple project; it could be an arts project; just to name a few. But, these are really dear to them. I publish all of them in Khabbar. Khabbar being a quarterly publication, sometimes, the urgency of the appeal is lost.

Recently, the response from Konkani families in North America for an appeal was overwhelming. The appeal was from the Gokarn Mutt Swamiji to get water samples from North America. It was accomplished even before I could publish it in Khabbar!

Hence, this idea came to me- If you are REALLY interested in helping, then join the "Khabbar Kares" email list. Any appeal I get, I will forward it to you. There is absolutely NO pressure. If you want to help, go ahead and if you don't, no feelings are hurt.
