Khabbar Follies

In this section, Khabbar looks into the Konkani community and anything and everything that is Konkani from a Konkani point of view. The names will never be published but geographic location will be identified in general terms.

There is no doubt in my mind that Khabbar is a part & parcel of life of Konkanis in North America. In fact, Khabbar has developed a special relation with most of the Konkani families and here are some examples of those close encounters of a different kind.....

It is fact that most of the unofficial "official" Khabbar correspondents pursue Konkani news items in North America with due diligence. But, not all the news items make it to Khabbar and I think, I know one of the reasons.

Here it is:

During Konkani Sammelan 2012 I ran into this ever young looking Konkani lady whom I had not seen over 15 years and believe me, she looked the same I had seen her last time. Catching up with all the panchadiks, I find that the lady's kids got married and she even has grand kids! And, all these news did not appear in Khabbar!!

I commented, "You know, if these news items did appear in Khabbar means it did NOT happen."

The lady replied, "I know, I purposely did not give these news items. Then, everybody will know that I am getting old!"

Tell me, how can I win here!?!

EDITORIAL

Dear Konkani family,

I hope all is well with you and your family.

This issue of Khabbar has been mailed to ALL families that have paid dues at least once since 2011. In other words, families who have not paid since 2010 will not be receiving this issue. The numbers on the mailing label clearly indicate the year/s the dues for Khabbar has been received since 2011 and if there is any error let me know.

Even in these tough economic times, the Advisory Committee of Khabbar has decided that the annual dues will remain the same at $15.00 a year and for that you get:

- Four issues of the Khabbar,
- Annual Mailing List and
- Discounted advertisement rates.

This issue has not been mailed to families that have specifically indicated that they will access eKhabbar. The on-line version of Khabbar, eKhabbar, will be on the web a quarter after mailing the hard copies.

Please, note it is time to renew your subscription for 2014. The 2014 Khabbar Mailing List will be mailed only to families that have paid their subscriptions for 2013. The Khabbar Mailing List is a prized possession of our community and please help me to keep it up-to-date. Send names and addresses of Konkani families that are not in the list to P. O. Box 222, Lake Jackson, TX 77566-0222, or email khabbar@hotmail.com and rest be assured that I'll "Khabbarize" them!

The newly re-organized North American Konkani Association (NAKA) is already busy in making progress. Please note that this is an interim Board who are making every effort to make a NAKA a viable organization in North America. Khabbar will publish all the developments and progress made by NAKA on an on-going basis. NAKA has made a bold statement about hosting the Konkani Sammelan in 2016 and hold general elections to hand over the reins of NAKA to the newly elected Board in 2016. Please, extend all your help in making NAKA a viable organization in North America.

Khabbar will also publish progress made by Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF) on a regular basis. I welcome Dr. Gopal Bhandarkar, the most respected Konkani in North America, to KCF. The team KCF needs all our support to help our folks anywhere in the world. I must say that team KCF is doing a great job. Keep it up

The unofficial Khabbar correspondents in your area who send in the hoon Khabbars on a regular basis are doing an outstanding job. Remember, if it did not appear in Khabbar, then it did not happen in North America! If your area is not represented wholly, let me know and I'll recruit more volunteers. You can send the news items via email (khabbar@hotmail.com).

On the Quiz front, Khabbar has still remained as a champ. By some luck, we had 17 with correct solutions for last quarter's quiz! A Khabbar record indeed!! Let us see how you will do with this quarter's quiz.

The progress of the ambitious project, Konkani Kendra, the Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan is good. Thanks to Basti Ganapathi Shenoy who has devised a method wherein families wanting to help Konkani Bhas Ani Sanskriti Pratistan can do so with relative ease! Call him at (702)-341-6706 or email: bastishenoy@gmail.com if interested to extend your help for this worthy cause. Indeed, the Kendra has become a center of attraction and I urge all North American Konkani to visit the Kendra to see what way they can benefit from this. Also, see in what way we can help our brethren who are doing an outstanding job in preserving our culture.

Khabbar will always publish appeals for charity free of charge but cannot collect money on behalf of any charity. Families are encouraged to send the money directly to the concerned charities or thru KCF if approved by KCF. Khabbar firmly believes in helping our people whether it is in India or here. Here's a link to all the appeals I gotten so far:

<http://www.ekhabbar.com/SpecialAppeals.htm>

I hope the struggle to rid terrorism from this world will materialize soon. Hope Peace & Tranquility will prevail.

Happy Holidays & Happy New Year to you all.

Devu Boren Karo.

Hi Vasanth,

Recently, I read this excellent book in Kannada "Swapna Saraswat" and thought of writing the attached review so that others would be encouraged to read it and understand some of the history of Konkanis. If you feel it is suitable for publication in e-Khabbar, please go ahead and publish it in the next issue..

Best regards

Dear Vasanth maam:

Namaskaru!

If possible, can you print the attached (Shree Shantika Parameshwari Dev Kumta (U.K.) Earnest Appeal) in the next issue?

Thank you in advance.

KONKANI HAPPENINGS

Konkani Association of Southern California (KASC):

The Konkani Association of Southern California (KASC) Diwali Celebration for the year 2013 was held on Saturday, November 2 at Laguna Woods Club House. The evening started with an hour of socializing and delicious snacks. The formal program began with invocation of Lord Ganesh and Goddess Lakshmi followed by Arathi. At the conclusion of the puja, our master of the ceremony and cultural coordinator Devika Shenoy set the stage for a variety of programs that dazzled the crowd. This year we had invited Akshay Hari, a USC student and SRGMP Mumbai top 50 contestants to entertain the crowd with his melodious songs ranging from classical bhajan to the old and the new Bollywood hits. This was followed by a mythological costume parade by the Konkani toddlers, dressed in characters like Chota Bheem and Shakuntala which was adorable. The bubbly Aadhya Shenoy took us back to the Madhuri days with her ek do teen...dance number. Shreya Pai displayed her excellent kathak dancing skills. Brenna Rao gave all a taste of western music accompanied by Raj Pai on the piano. The orange county kids enacted the Panchatantra Stories rekindling our childhood memories. The mother daughter duo Maya and Niveditha Pai graceful presented a classical dance followed by Bharatnatyam by Devika Shenoy, both drawing a great applause from the audience. The highlight of the program was the interesting and hilarious Konkani skit "Kalyugache Ramayan" written by Rajesh Prabhu and enacted by Nandini and Sridhar Rao, Deepa and Rajesh Prabhu, Karthik Gadiyar, Priya Nayak, Nitin Sujir and Ashish Pradhan. The event ended with a delicious catered buffet dinner from Mayura restaurant. A "Big Thank You" to all the KASC office bearers and volunteers who contributed to the resounding success of the function. Also special thanks to Venkatesh and Padma Rao for arranging the venue for this occasion.

KONKANI SABHA DIWALI:

The Konkani Sabha celebrated its annual Diwali program in the Bridgewater temple community hall in New Jersey on Saturday, October 26, 2013. This eagerly awaited community event saw over 300 attendees eagerly looking forward to connect and bond with their fellow Konkani friends and relatives.

The organizing committee members worked diligently to ensure a unique and spectacular array of programs that appealed to all ages and sensibilities. The event opened its doors to registrants at 2.45pm and everyone was welcomed with "garama-garam" snacks and "hun-hun" panchadika! Setting the tone for the variety entertainment, our colorfully dressed Konkani Bandhavas and their beautiful ladies swirled and danced to dandiya beats, opening the dance floor and beckoning all to join the revelry. Any auspicious occasion can be a grand success only by invoking the Almighty's choicest blessings. With immense fervor and faith, all those gathered offered their prayers as they took turns performing "Aarti" to goddess Lakshmi, the presiding deity for culture and prosperity.

The variety entertainment commenced on stage at 4.00pm sharp. Led by the articulate and entertaining team of MC's : Maya Shenoy, Sudhesh Nayak, Naina Kamath and Akshay Kamath, the audience was in turns amused, and amazed by the little anecdotes and trivia that they shared. Sequencing of programs was planned in advance and the entertainment was an ideal mix of solo, group, kids' and adult performances. Apart from celebrating Diwali together, this event also provides a platform to all our talented Konkanis to showcase their talents, either in individual capacity or as a team. We witnessed kids as young as 3 years of age and adults, shed their inhibitions and revel in the opportunity to showcase their skills and versatility. The performances included bhajans, a bharatnatyam, classical dances, tabla performances, classical singing, festival dances and bollywood dances by kids and adults.

One of the highlights of the evening was the felicitation of Dr. Gopal Bhandarkar and Elegant Affairs for their selfless service to the community. Dr. Bhandarkar has been an active supporter of the Konkani community and led the Konkani Sammelan 2012 to its grand and resounding success. He was honored with a plaque for his commendable leadership and his continued moral support to the Konkani Sabha and Konkani events. The spirited team at Elegant Affairs (Sharda Shenoy and Shobha Rao) deserved special recognition because of their generosity and community spirit. Each year, Elegant Affairs sends in their team to build a backdrop for the Diwali stage, which is nothing less than spectacular. Not only does it elevate the program platform, it also enhances our celebratory spirit. Since work commitments required their presence elsewhere, Mr. Ravi Shenoy kindly accepted the token of our appreciation on their behalf.

Konkani Sabha outgoing President, Mr. Santosh Kamat, gave his 'President's Speech' highlighting the challenges faced by the committee in the past, and their efforts to handle over-subscribed performance entries and registrants. He thanked the attendees, performers and volunteers for their continued support. Mr. Kamat encouraged new volunteers to come forward, participate and help organize the event in future. He also announced committee rotation and introduced the newly appointed committee members, listed below, for the year 2014. This was followed by an acceptance speech by the incoming President, Mr. Vivek Shenoy, and a Vote of Thanks by Mr. Prakash Shenoy.

Konkani Social Club (KSC)

The Konkani Social Club (KSC) of South Texas celebrated their annual Diwali function on Friday October 26th 2013 at the Madras Pavilion in Sugar Land, TX from 7:00 PM to past midnight. The hall was decorated with authentic Diwali items including the Akash Goodu. The program started with invocation of Goddess Lakshmi . There were quite a few fulfilled entertainment events like Karaoke, Bhajans and Dance. After the sumptuous dinner and sweets by Govind Boloor, the attendees danced to popular music until the wee hours. The whole event was sponsored by Suresh & Usha Shenoy of Sugar Land, TX.

Houston Area Amchigale Samaj (HAAS) Diwali:

The 2013 HAAS Diwali Gala event held on 2nd Nov at Madras Pavilion Sugarland was a memorable and resounding success! The venue was well decked up and decorated. The warmth and the splendor of the hall were fit for the grand function that followed. Appetizers were aplenty, while drinks flowed as guests gathered and met friends and family and did 'panchaitikato chit chat and catch up with all the latest in the community.

Manikyam pachi, Meera pachi and Latha pachi started off the event with the lighting of the Diya and the invocation prayer was sung by Chaitra Shenoy.

Group performances as opposed to individual performance was a distinguishing feature of this year's Diwali event. With great appreciation we applaud all the performers for their diligent work in rehearsing for the event, taking time off their busy schedules. Needless to say, it required all of the participants to co-ordinate and accommodate the practice schedules in their busy life. Thanks to you all for your preparation in making this a grand success.

The 'Date with Dave' was much talked about play and wholly enjoyed by the audience. We laud the performance of every actor and director / writer for the wonderful conceptualization of the theme. 'Jai Ho' dance performance by the 'Young !!' husbands of the committee members also was a "Talk of the Town". The audience was kept entertained by Lungi Dance, Health is Wealth play by the kids, Hot Mamma's Dance, Nritya Jugalbandi and different other dance and singing performances by various Konkani Talents.

The sumptuous diner was served at 8.30 PM and followed by DJ Dance.

The event was emceed by Surendra and Akila Bhat keeping the audience engaged with anecdotes from 'Amchigale' Languages, Konkani satire etc... We thank both for wonderful compilations.

We would like to thank Govind Boloor for the 'Mithai Undo' and "Jeelebi" that he made specially for this event. Ymmmm.. Our sincere thanks to Chetan Bhat, Narendra Rao for helping setup the venue, sound systems and Gurudutt Kamath for DJ (and training the youth in managing the sound systems) and all other volunteers in helping out the committee in different aspects of managing this event.

Thanks

AMKA Volunteering

AMKA referred to the song, "Heal the World" by MICHAEL JACKSON to ask for volunteers for the annual volunteering event held on Oct 26th, Saturday at FMSC (Feed My Starving Children) located in Aurora, IL. The message was to get involved in the community and make a difference and in turn make the world a better place.

This message was carried over by many volunteers who came to participate which included many children and not just made a difference but had fun too. At the end of the two hours of non-stop packing of food for children all around the world, the AMKA group {along with a Church group} were able to pack 96 boxes with each box containing 32 packets of food and costing $50 to pack.

All volunteers were given instructions on how to come dressed for the packing and were asked to wash their hands before going into the packing area. Each group was asked to pack at tables named after the countries that FMSC supply food to. When any food item was over in the bin the group had to shout out their country name with the item needed to the warehouse "boys" {our President and WebMaster} to supply the group with a bin filled with that item. Also once they packed a box they were required to shout out the number they had packed. This led to some healthy competition between the groups.

With children helping out, the adults were also motivated to pack more boxes ensuring that their group packed the most. The enthusiasm showed by the kids was amazing & shows how much joy they get participating along with their Parents. The children were switching between adding the vitamin to adding rice to the packets & weighing them before handing them over for sealing and boxing. Some danced to the music being played. This is an event that AMKA started a few years ago and already some of us are looking forward to the next year's event to have more fun.

Konkaribbean (Picnic)

Konkaribbean, AMKA Summer Picnic 2013 was a super blast!!!

An amazing factor this year was that all members came dressed up for the event & participated with enthusiasm. Kids went the extra way and were rewarded for their efforts. Dressing for the Caribbean theme brought about such cohesiveness to the AMKA team that it demands an extra special mention.

The Picnic was held at the Blackwell Forest Preserve North Shelter, which is well placed & has enough space for everyone, whether it is for volleyball, cricket, or kids crafts and games. The whole Shelter was decorated in the Caribbean theme with Pineapples, Hibiscus, palm tree cutout and Flamingos with the welcoming table professionally dressed up with fresh leaves and flowers.

Members drove from different directions & participated in all the planned activities and kids enjoyed doing crafts & dancing to some Goan music. Everyone participated with a lot of enthusiasm especially when it was time for the Limbo Dance. Young or old, everyone had a good time.

After a whole day eating and enjoyment, the event ended with prizes being given out for special categories, like Best dressed Female and male, best dressed new couple or Old member couple and a game of Bingo. Special mention has to be made of the "roadside" Mumbai style eating of the chaat & pain puri...folks especially enjoyed that the most.

As appeared in Daijiworld

Daijiworld Media Network - Bantwal (NM)

Bantwal, Nov 11: The 80th birthday of veteran Konkani activist and founder of World Konkani Centre Basti Vaman Shenoy was celebrated in a grand manner with a day-long event at SVS High School here on Sunday November 10. The programme was organized by Basti Vaman Shenoy 80 Sambhrama Committee, Bantwal

The main celebration was held in the evening with a stage programme wherein T V Mohandas Pai, chairman, Manipal Global Education, Bangalore was chief guest, minister for forests B Ramanath Rai presided and renowned Kannada writer Arya Laxminaranaya Alva, Goa Konkani Sahitya Academy president Pundalik Naik and Ramdas Kamath U, vice-president of Infosys Bangalore were the guests of honour.

Mannur Laxman Kamath, executive president of the organizing committee welcomed the gathering and introduced the guests.

On the occasion, Basti Vaman Shenoy was felicitated and wished by several organizations and individuals for his outstanding contribution to socio-cultural sphere of the country. His autobiography 'Ek Bhikshuk Chakravarthili Kanni' was released by Arya Laxminaranaya Alva, while Pundalik Naik released a souvenir 'Basti Sambhram'.

Mohandas Pai in his address said, "The fact that so many people have attended this ceremony only suggests that Basti Vaman Shenoy spent the best part of his life serving the community. He is a living legend, the torchbearer of culture and language. We are inheritors of a great culture, but today there are very few people who pass on the tradition and culture to the next generation. Most people are engaged in earning for a living and fail to enjoy human existence to the fullest. However, Basti Vaman Shenoy has embodied the entire culture and worked for it."

Arya Laxminaranaya Alva said, "Basti Vaman Shenoy is not only known for his Konkani writings but also for his works in Kannada. He has brought good name to Bantwal where he was born, and has successfully lived his 80 years. He was not only born for one community but lived for all communities, and therefore he is recognised by society."

Acknowledging the honour, Basti Vaman Shenoy said that with this honour his responsibility had also increased. Recalling his early life, he said he was inspired by his father and others in his family who lived a selfless life. He narrated how some of the great people in his locality moulded him and thanked people who enabled him to grow, T M A Pai, Dayanand Pai, Ronald Colaco, Mohandas Pai, Ramadas Kamath, Eric Ozario and others. "Due to the support of these people, it was possible to build World Konkani Centre and host the World Konkani Convention," he said.

"Whenever I did something good, people encouraged me which kept me motivated to continue doing good. I am no great man, all that I did in my life was to collect from the rich and give it to the poor; I was only a bridge, and the 2.5 crore scholarship provided by WKC to students is an example of it," he said.

"We will again get together here for my 100th birthday," he added in a lighter tone.

Minister Ramanath Rai recalled his association with Basti Vaman Shenoy and said that age has not been a limit or hindrance to him. "He mingled with everyone and treats everyone equally. It is said that a hard working person finds rest in his work; this saying is apt for Basti Vaman Shenoy. Even at this age he travels from place to place for the sake of society, if not for himself. The young generation should follow the example set by him.

"Today the society is ruled by money, humanity is nowhere and love among mankind is missing. Society should learn Basti Vaman Shenoy. He is a man of love, one who has worked for the betterment of society. I'll be very happy to attend the 100th birthday of Shenoy," he added.

Birthdays surprise

As a birthday surprise to Basti Vaman Shenoy, Venkatesh Baliga, secretary of WKC in his address announced the institution of Basti Vaman Shenoy Seva Puraskar, which will be conferred on a man and a woman for their exemplary service of outstanding order in the field of community development, education, health, political action, social movement, sports, or any other profession. There will be no age limit and deserving persons from Konkani speaking community from all over India will be selected for the award. The award will consist of a cash prize of Rs 1 lac.

T Narayan Kamath, chief convener of the organizing committee, B Prabhakar Prabhu, secretary, and Puttur Narasimha Nayak present.

There was also a musical programme by Puttur Narasimha Nayaka and group.

Earlier in the day, a seminar was held on the topic 'Youth in public service and cultural life - today and tomorrow', followed by an All India Konkani poetry meet wherein poets from Mumbai, Kerala, Karnataka and Goa participated.

Letter of Appreciation of Shri Shenoy by his brother Ganapathi Shenoy of Las Vegas, NV:

Daiji World is a Konkani periodical published from Mangalore. They covered our Anna's 80th birthday celebration in Bantwal on Nov. 9th, 2013. They covered it very well with great photos and articles. They also printed the comments from a lot of people about Vaman Anna. The comments provoked me to write a few words. And here it is.

If your time permits, click on this link below to see the festivities that went on in Bantwal on his 80th birthday. We all should consider ourselves as lucky that he is related to us from a very close quarter. Chuck Schedel, Ashvin's father in law had this to say about Vaman Annaa after their meeting in Las Vegas in 2012 July, quote "HE IS THE GREATEST MAN THAT I EVER MET, THOUGH I DON'T KNOW HIM A LOT , THE AURA OF GREATNESS IN HIM COULD BE FELT ALL AROUND HIM" unquote.

I am one of the 8 beneficiaries who could claim that the greatest Konkani that I know of, Basti Vaman Shenoy, is my sibling, though that's where the similarity between him and the other 8 ends. All of his siblings have done very well in their lives but, we don't hold a candle in front of his glory, achievements, dedication to the cause of bringing back greatness to the Konkani language and culture. No matter by what standard one tries to measure him, he can't escape coming to the same conclusion that Vaman Shenoy was a child of destiny, like of whom come only once in many generations. No doubt he had the benefit of observing our father's glorious life, like of which I have seldom seen. Rest of us who lost our father when we were quite young can't use it as an excuse for not doing much in our lives except leading a good life. Consequently the impact of our father Motor Madhav Shenoy's life on my life was not as profound as you can see it over Vaman Shenoy's life. Our father's dedication to Gandhian principles in life must have had a great influence on Vaman Mam's (That's how he is known all over by Konkani speaking Hindus, Muslims & Christians) life. I had the benefit of watching Vaman Annaa from very close quarters and I can say with unequivocal authority that he is a unique person born with a caliber not 99% of the human race is blessed with. All those who claim Konkani as their ancestry should feel lucky that this man is Konkani. Had he taken any other cause to promote, he would have done the same excellent job because he just doesn't know how to do it any other way. I was only 6 when he contested for the Bantwal SVS High School Captain's position at the age of 16 and he raised the tempo of that election like of which never happened in Bantwal High School again. Since then, be it the cause of Saraswathi Kala Mandir or Yashwanth Vyaayamashaala, or Adding rooms to Bantwal High School or Kumbhaabhishekha at the Bantwal Temple, or Vishwa Konkani Sammelan, no matter what the cause was, if he was involved in it, the event ended like of which never happened before. Settling for a second rank was never his trait. He is a First Class Man and always strived to do everything in a First Class manner.

Letter of Appreciation from Vasanth Bhat, Hon. Editor, Khabbar:

Dear Shri Shenoy,

Happy 80th Birthday. It is a true honor to convey my deepest appreciation to you, through this letter, and mention a few good words about you and some of your great accomplishments. Your attendance at the first Konkani Sammelan in 1996 rekindled the Konkani spirit in North America. Ever since then, you have kept the Konkani community aware of all the developments to Konkani language and culture back at home by publishing regularly the "Khabbar from Kular" column in Khabbar. On behalf of the North American Konkani community, I can say that we are really indebted to your humble service.

Your selfless service to the global Konkani community has not gone unnoticed. Your involvement with Konkani Bhasha Mandal, Karnatak and Konkani Academy helped create the Karnataka Konkani Sahitya Academy. The first World Konkani Convention in 1995 was a grand success. Your love for Konkani helped to introduce Konkani in the Schools of Karnataka as the optional third Language. Your accomplishments with Konkani Kendra are plentiful and all in the love for a language Konkani, which we cherish. No wonder the Konkani Sardar is an honor you deserve.

Thank you for all that you do to advance the Konkani community. May Lord give you all health and strength to continue this important work.

A Book Review: Swapna Saraswat – A Kannada Kadambari

Author: Gopalkrishna Pai

Book reviewed by: Sadanand Mankikar, Burlington, Ontario, Canada

Published by Bhyagalakshmi Prakashana, Bangalore

Pages xxii + 476 Price: Rs. 325, US $ 25

This Kannada novel by Shri Gopalkrishna Pai is based on the history of Saraswat Brahmins. The book vividly narrates trials and tribulations of the Saraswats who were prospering in Goa 400 years back but following the barbaric invasion by Portuguese were forced to migrate southward to save their lives, beliefs, culture, religion and most importantly treasured idols of their Kul Devas. The first half of the book starts with one Vittu Pai of Kumble of Kaunshya Gotra telling the story of his ancestors to his grandson Ramchandra Pai. The rest of the book covers the life of Vittu pai and Ramachandra Pai and their siblings, children and grandchildren, their rise to the glory days and destruction of siblings through natural causes as well as infights. Vittu Pai was born in Verne in 1542 AD, the day the Portuguese first set their feet in Goa. He was born with Naag Shapa/dosha as a result of his ancestors not respecting the Naagas which was to affect 22 generations. He was a grandson of a wealthy and well settled Narasappayya who was a son of Mhalsharma. They were highly successful in both agriculture and commerce. They built their wealth by interacting with people of different casts and tribes and local as well as foreign Muslims from "Arabasthan". Ramachandra Pai not only owned 400 acres of fertile land in Ballambetti, he also helped his brothers and step brothers settle prosperously in the nearby villages.

As Vittu Pai was growing up the Portuguese were forcibly converting Hindus to Christianity and mercilessly destroying temples and idols. As this was getting unbearable under the express guidance of Nagdo Betaal, their enlightened leader and protector, many started migrating southward. The journey was long, treacherous and tiring, especially, with women and children and limited provision. Unknown territories, lack of roads and means for travel, wild animals, horrible weather, sicknesses and attacks by dacoits hindered their progress. As the caravans proceeded, the weaker and the unwilling were left behind in different places to start their own settlements. Thus, small groups of people settled in places like Gangolli, Udupi, Nileshwar, Karkala, Mulky, Bantwal, Mangalore, Panemangalore, Ullal, Kocchi, Manjeshwar, Kumble, Kasargod, Talcheri, Alpalli etc. Nagdo Betaal had ordered the 44 families to settle each in different villages. In many places the local rulers offered them shelter. Wherever they settled they prospered because of their hard work and commitment to preserving their children, culture, religion and traditions. By the way, the constant and continuous influence and spirit of Nagdo Betaal throughout the story as a dependable spiritual guide, make one wonder whether this character is a real person or the spirit that protected the people through a number of generations. He had promised Saraswats that whenever and wherever they were in troubles he would come to protect them. He had instructed Vittu Pai to leave Verne with the rest of his relatives and idols, promising him to come later to help them. But he only appears at the end of the story when Ramachandra Pai was on his deathbed thirsting for his reappearance.... whether he really comes or it is just Ramachandra Pai's illusion is left to the readers to decide.

The book spans over nine generations and covers the intertwined lives of numerous people, hence it is difficult to cover everything and everyone in this short review. Also explaining events in much detail would diminish the element of suspense which the author has interwoven so painstakingly and intelligently.

Many characters and events in this book may not be real and if they are real may not be familiar to the Konkans but characters like Dhadda and Nagdo Betaal seem to creep in discussions on traditions, customs and rites. For example, a custom of making a small boy sitting next to the Munja and next to the groom represents Dhadda as a direct result of the curses by Nagdo Betaal on Vittu Pai. Dhadda was left at the doorsteps of Vittu's house when he was just a toddler by an unknown person. Out of pity, Vittu's mother brought him up as her own. He was deaf and mute. Little did they know the major role this little toddler would play when he grew up.

Under Nagdo Betaal's guidance, Dhadda had taken Mhalsimai's idol from the temple and hid it in the forest so that the Portuguese could not destroy it. Nagdo Betaal had told this only to Vittu as he was cursing Dhadda when the later was missing. When the Portuguese officers could not find the idol, they gathered prominent Saraswats and started questioning and torturing them. When Vittu Pai could not bear anymore he told the Portuguese officers that Dhadda had hidden the idol. The Portuguese released all Saraswats who were already beaten to near death and captured Dhadda and interrogated and tortured him to death. Enraged Nagdo Betaal ordered Vittu Pai and prominent Saraswats to leave Verne and told them that they had no right on the water of Verne and no right to worship Mhalasamai. He also put a curse that Vittu's family will be decimated as one in every four generations would not produce a progeny. But when Vittu Pai repented and begged for leniency, Nagdo Betaal told them that after 400 years they will be able to go to Goa and start worshiping Mhalsamai and the women will be able to bear up to 12 children each, thus Saraswats will continue to flourish. He decreed that all Saraswats belonging to 108 kulas worshiping the 11 deities of Goa must address each other Mam and Manyi and Saraswats among themselves must talk in Konkani. When they fail to do so, the women will stop bearing the progeny. He immortalized Dhadda by building seven temples for him and decreed that whenever Saraswats visit their Kuldeavatas in Goa, they must remember to pay respect to Dhadda by visiting these temples

The author's mastery of the language is quite evident. Painstaking research over the years conducted by the author is also obvious. The routes taken and the places visited by the ancestors to reach a safe destination to start fresh livelihood, are described so vividly that as one turns the pages, it feels like one is watching a movie or a TV serial. The explanation of events, the sufferings gone through by the travellers, and the familiar places raise goose bumps. Once start reading, it is extremely difficult to put the book down. Many events are narrated in such a lucid way that at times it is difficult to separate facts from fiction.

This book is a must read for every Konkani who can read Kannada. However, some of the torrid affairs by the heads of the households, gruesome events involving torture, and the deceitful practices, traditions and rites such as "Maata, Mantra, Anjana" may require reader's discretion. It is hoped that this book gets translated into other languages including in English so that Konkans who cannot read Kannada will have the joy of reading the book as well as becoming aware of the troubles our ancestors had taken to preserve our culture, religion and traditions.

Anugraha Daughter Gets Married

Umadevi walked into the marriage pandal along with the love of more than 30 foster mothers. A resident of Narmada complex run by Anugraha Charitable Trust, Thammanam, Uma Devi got married on 4th December 2013. The lucky groom is the son of Alungaparambil Ramananda Kamath and Radhamani.

Three siblings were adopted ten years back by the Trust, thanks to Dr. Narmada & Dayanand Kamath Endowment Fund and were staying at the "Home" along with thirty other inmates. Elder daughter Hema was married two years back and their brother is continuing his studies. Marriage ceremony was conducted with all customs and traditions of a GSB marriage on the auspicious Muhuurtham of Abhijit Lagnam. It seems the whole society was blessing the couple with their attendance and every one enjoyed the function which was held with pomp and gaiety.

All Children of One God

Submitted by: A Sai Devotee

God belongs to all. He is Universal. All of you have to give up differences of every kind. Give no room to narrow parochial and national loyalties. Consider yourselves as the children of one God. You may worship God in any form of your choice, but recognize the truth that God is only one. The observance of holidays like Christmas is an occasion for realizing the importance of Love and Harmony among human beings.

In Memoriam: K. Sudhaker Rao, MD (1940-1993)

Twenty years ago, our family, our community - local and extended - lost a very special man.

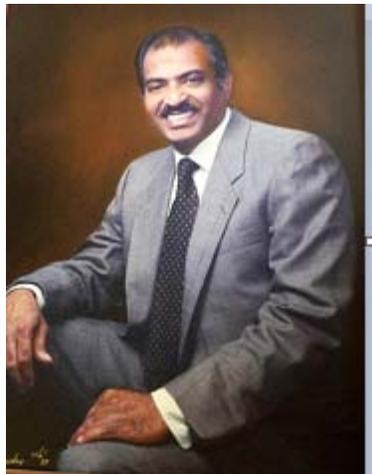

Hard to believe that twenty years have passed, a mixed set of emotions have overcome us during this past fall. Feelings of sadness and reminiscing of course as every year, but also for the three of us a sense of deep reflection, acceptance and peace.

To many he was Dr. Rao, Rao, or uncle, mama, bappa, bhavaji, to us just dad, daddy, husband and life partner. As many Indian fathers of his generation, he wasn't the type to sit us down for advice sessions or tell us what to do. His was a quiet resolve – at home and at work. He was hard-working, generous of purse and heart, intelligent and goal-oriented, emotional, gentle, kind and sincere sometimes to a fault. He believed in the power of knowledge, to always seek out more and never stop learning. The Gandhi quote comes to mind: "Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever."

A dedicated father and husband, he was somewhat non-traditional at the time – doing late night calls and school carpooling, watching sports or the news and cooking up traditional Konkani dishes (his chicken curry was a fave!), studying his medical books yet seeking out the latest electronic gadgets for the family. Though, he certainly held to tradition as well - respect your elders, give back to others, education is of utmost importance. He was that did not stop a passion to serve, to learn, to do - for happiness and success. He taught us by your principles, to have faith in yourself and to

And to get here from there, we cannot pass without acknowledging the great and undeniable support, love and caring of our Konkani family and friends then and through these years. It was weeks and months of understanding and comfort in various forms from around the world and while we didn't have it in us then or even these years truly to realize it all then, we THANK YOU. We THANK each and every person who helped us get through all these years with their kind words, phone calls and visits, warm hugs, memorable stories, comforting food, shared car rides, sometimes silence, and always thoughtful intentions. After many years, we can finally think about the past and reflect on that incredibly painful and difficult time, to find peace and be at peace with the fact that our father's/husband's soul is at rest.

This year, we celebrated his life, his accomplishments, his successes and his dreams for all of us. We hope and pray that we all can continue to live, as he did, simply yet fully an influence as he was to family, patients, friends and colleagues guided by the example he provided to continue to seek knowledge and work hard. His spirit in us always, the light of his memory as bright as can be, we miss you, we love you.

"Work for a cause, not for applause. Live life to express and not to impress. Don't strive to make your presence noticed, just make your absence felt." Indeed, it is.

In remembrance and with gratitude,

Sabitha, Shammi and Shailesh

The North American Konkani Association (NAKA) Quarterly Update

Dear Fellow Konkanis,

Here's the quarterly update on NAKA for this quarter:

The Interim NAKA team meets regularly on a bi-weekly basis to discuss how to make NAKA a viable organization in North America. The team now consists of Sheila Shenoy Reddy, Sadanand Mankikar, Vasanth Bhat, Suresh Shenoy and Ranjit Shiralkar.

Despite the best efforts and hard work by the Los Angeles Konkani Youth committee, the 2013 Konkani Youth Convention had to be cancelled. NAKA worked alongside the committee to raise funds, awareness and enthusiasm, however due to extremely low registration numbers, both committees felt it was best to cancel the event. The 2013 KYC committee has reimbursed all attendees and are working on recouping all costs associated with the event. We wanted to thank all those that supported KYC. NAKA is working diligently with the 2013 KYC committee to minimize the financial loss incurred and whatever surplus is left will be noted by NAKA for Konkani youth related efforts. In addition, NAKA is looking to other initiatives to bolster the Konkani youth in North America and are looking into other programming that would be best suited in the changing times.

We are proud to announce that NAKA will be launching a website in the next month highlighting ways you can get involved in national Konkani programming. In addition, we will be publishing the amended by laws and constitution. Again, thanks for all your support!

All the financial dealing of NAKA will be transparent are here's the statement for this quarter:

Quarterly Update

From the humble beginning the Konkani Charitable Fund (KCF) has grown beyond our initial expectations in just five years. Our initial goal was to provide an opportunity for all the Konkanis in North America. The initial task was to identify the needs of the community and set some guidelines to make sure that the help reaches truly deserving people. The committee has so far certified 25 charitable institutions in India who provide verifiable humanitarian services. The variety of services provided include educational support for the deserving students, medical help for children, support for the elderly and a helping hand for an orphanage. The total value of your support through KCF has exceeded Rs. 2,50,00,000. This is far beyond our initial expectation. Our special thanks to all who contributed to various charities.

Our initial board of directors consisted of six members. As per by-laws two members will retire every five years to bring in new members into the executive committee after providing valuable service to KCF. In their place two new members will join the executive committee starting January 1, 2014. Dr. Gopal Bhandarkar and Dr. Ganesh Bhat will join the team. Dr. Gopal Bhandarkar whose leadership made the 2012 Konkani Sammelan a resounding success has been elected as the new President of the KCF.

The KCF will continue to provide the following services:

1. All contributions will continue to receive tax benefits as applicable by existing law.
2. 100% of all your contributions will be directed to charities of donors choice provided they meet the guidelines. These guidelines assure us that the contributions are used for humanitarian purpose without any conflict of interest and they have legal basis as per applicable laws of the land.
3. There are NO administrative fees.
4. KCF will continue to identify and certify more charitable organizations that deserve our support.

As we welcome the New Year, please, remember that any contributions made before December 31, 2013 will qualify to tax benefits. So please open your hearts to help those who are less fortunate. Let us start giving back to our community. You will experience the greatest joy when you give to the needy. Please visit the website: www.konkanicf.org to learn more about KCF. Now is the best time to write a check and make that contribution. You can make a difference.

Thanks to all of you on behalf of KCF

KCF Board of Directors

Letter from Ramesh Kamath, soon to be Past President, KCF:

Hello Konkani Bandhavas,

It was five years back that some of us decided to explore the feasibility of establishing a Konkani Charitable Fund. I was nominated to lead the effort. Very quickly we came up with the mission statement and charter for KCF. Following that we obtained 501 (3) C status from IRS and from California State. What started off as a modest effort has really grown beyond my expectations. In the last five years we have donated $430,000 to various charities that support Konkani community back home. This translates to more than two and a half crore rupees at today's exchange rate. I am really happy about this and proud of our community. We have approved more than 25 charities as eligible to receive grants from KCF.

In developing the charter for KCF we decided that the leadership should be term limited to five years. This would facilitate new leadership and new ideas. I am therefore stepping down as Chairperson of KCF effective Jan 14th 2014. Along with me Ravi Baliga will also step down. Thanks to Ravi for his outstanding support and contribution to KCF. Gopal Bhandarkar was chosen as the new Chairperson by the KCF Board. A new member Ganesh Bhat from New York will join the Board. With this change KCF will be an even stronger and active organization.

I want to thank the current KCF Board members for working together as a team and growing the organization. I am particularly proud of our zero overhead policy. I have agreed to provide continuing guidance as needed to the new Board. I also want to thank Vasanth Bhat for his unconditional support and encouragement. I hope our community will continue to support KCF in a much bigger way.
